

Santa visits the suburbs

Christmas for residents in the Centenary and Inala suburbs will take on an added charm, when the Jindalee Apex Club brings Santa to the streets to spread the Christmas spirit.

The Club has its own float made to look like Santa's sleigh and reindeers will take on before Christmas it takes to the streets with Santa on board to distribute gifts of balloons and sweets to the children, broadcast Christmas Carols and collect donations for the Club's various projects on the way.

This year will be the third year they have been operating and it has always been a great success for kids and adults alike. If this is your first year in the Centenary or Inala suburbs you're in for a pleasant surprise.

The float made its first appearance this year, on November 26, when the Jindalee Apex Club lent it to Centenary Shopping Centre to bring Santa to their Village which has been located in the Centre.

The Apex float will be travelling the streets on the following dates, so tell the kids to keep an eye out for it.

Monday 15 — Jindalee - North of Curragundi Road, Tuesday 16 — Jamboree Heights, Wednesday 17 — Jindalee - South of Curragundi Road, Friday 19 — Westlake, Riverhills, and Middle Park, Saturday 20 — Sinnamon Village and Inala, Monday 22 — Jindalee - South of Curragundi Road.

What's Christmas without the "Panto"

Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without a Pantomime playing somewhere.

The Brisbane Youth Theatre is presenting one called 'Follow the Yellow Brick Road?', which will have all the traditional trimmings. Pantomimes are renowned for.

Written by the theatre's artistic director, Brett Davidson, it caters for a cast of 65 young people and has popular characters such as Snow White, the White Rabbit, Superwoman, Wonderwoman, lots of wizards and witches and even the Three Bears. The Christmas Pantomime runs from December 15 to December 20 at the Youth Theatre, 27 Hampstead Road, Highgate Hill.

The Brisbane Arts Theatre is presenting the Australian premiere of the musical, 'Treasure Island' until December 20. It is playing Wednesday to Saturday evenings at 8.15 p.m. and Saturday Matinees at 2 p.m. Book by phoning 36 2344.

TELEVISION PERSONALITY TO HOST CAROL SERVICE

A Community Carol Service will be held in the car park of the Kenmore Village Shopping Centre on Sunday 21st December at 7 p.m. with popular television personality Glenn Taylor compering the occasion.

Arranged by the combined churches of Kenmore, the service has been a popular annual event and this year will be held closer to Christmas Day than usual.

The program will consist of plenty of carol singing and a few items of entertainment will be presented by the participating churches. The words of the carols will be shown on an outdoor screen and participants are invited to bring torches or candles.

There will also be a special Christmas offering for overseas aid.
